

GRANTED!

Planning for Stellar Research: Data and Dissemination

A new webinar mini-series from
SCPOR and U of S June 12 & 13

Research Data Management and the Tri-Agency: How Portage is Helping Institutions and Researchers Succeed	Physician and Patient-Oriented Open Access to Research
Mr. Jeff Moon, Director, Portage Network The Tri-Agency Statement of Principles on Digital Data Management has been created to promote excellence in the management and stewardship of research data. The ability to store, provide access, and reuse publicly funded research data has become critical to scientific innovation, and key to successful grant proposals. This one-hour webinar will introduce you to research data management concepts and tri-agency standards, as well as the Portage Network which is dedicated to the shared stewardship of research data in Canada and promotion of national research data services and infrastructure. June 12, 11:00AM-12:00PM in Saskatchewan (CST) Register here	Dr. John Willinksy, Professor, Graduate School of Education, Stanford University The Canadian Tri-Agency open access policy on publications aims to make publicly funded research openly available to other researchers and to the general public. This one-hour webinar explains Open Access and its implications to researchers and patients who might want to use the results of those studies, as well as grant writers who need to plan for knowledge dissemination through Open Access publications. June 13, 12:00PM-1:00PM in Saskatchewan (CST) Register here

Webinars will be recorded for those who cannot attend in real time.